

Anne Sheehan

CalPERS Board of Administration

Anne Sheehan was appointed to the CalPERS Board in December 2007 as the designated representative of the State Personnel Board (SPB). She presently serves on the Investment, Performance and Compensation and Health Benefits Committee as well as on the Policy Subcommittee of the Investment Committee.

Sheehan has served as a member of the SPB since December 2003. The five-member Board is constitutionally responsible for overseeing California's civil service system and issues involving state employee discipline, selection, appeals, classification, and discrimination. The SPB elects a representative to the CalPERS Board annually, in December of each year.

On October 1, 2008, Ms. Sheehan was appointed to the post of Director of Corporate Governance of the California State Teachers' Retirement System. Prior to that, she served as Chief Deputy Director for Policy at the California Department of Finance, serving on more than 80 boards, commissions, and authorities on behalf of the Director of Finance, including the California State Teachers' Retirement System. She also served as the Executive Director of the Governor's Public Employee Post-Employment Benefits Commission, which recommended a package of pension fraud and abuse reforms and which were signed into law in September.

Ms. Sheehan has nearly two decades of management and leadership experience on public policy issues. In addition to her current duties, Ms. Sheehan's public sector experience includes serving for six years on behalf of former Governor Pete Wilson at the California State and Consumer Services agency - as Deputy Secretary, Under Secretary, and as Secretary from 1993 to 1999. From 1991 to 1993, Ms. Sheehan served as Deputy Director for Legislation and Regulation at the California Department of Consumer Affairs, representing the Governor on legislation affecting 39 regulated professions and vocations.

From 2000 to 2002, Ms. Sheehan was special projects director for the California Building Industry Association, which represents more than 6,000 homebuilders, developers and contractors throughout the state. From 2003 to 2004, she served as the Executive Director of the California Building Industry Foundation, overseeing its fundraising, grant administration and endowment operations.

Ms. Sheehan is a graduate of the University of Colorado. Currently, she serves on the Board of the Children's Receiving Home of Sacramento and is a member of the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California.
